

Junior-High Honor Choir to Perform at Summer Conference

The Junior-High Honor Choir will again be a part of the ACDA-PA Summer Conference at Penn State University on August 3rd and 4th, 2008. We are extremely pleased to announce that the conductor for this year's honor choir is Rollo A. Dilworth, Associate Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities and Music Education at the North Park University School of Music in Chicago, Illinois.

The choir has openings for 120 singers currently in grades 7, 8, or 9 from schools, church choirs, and community choirs. Students will rehearse at Penn State University. Registration will begin at 2:00PM on August 3rd and the festival will conclude with the concert at 3:00PM on August 4th.

An application form is enclosed in this issue of Polyphony. Application forms and a $3.00 application fee must be postmarked by March 31st, 2008. The registration fee for students who are selected for the festival is $120.00. This registration fee will include: hotel housing, adult chaperones, pizza party, dinner on Sunday, breakfast and lunch on Monday, conductor, accompanist, use of rehearsal/concert facility, sheet music for the festival, practice and performance CDs, and a great musical experience!

We encourage you to recommend your singers for this exciting event. If you have further questions, please contact festival host Brian Winnie (winnibri@eastpennsd.org or 610-395-8593 ext. 6223).
